Press release

St. Kilian Distillers unveils Advocaat eggnog enhanced with single malt whisky and new bottle design for the entire liqueur range.

With the combination of a new taste experience and modern bottle design, the German distillery is once again setting standards.

Rüdenau, July 2023

The Franconian distillery St. Kilian Distillers presents its first egg liqueur with the new Advocaat. The special feature of this exquisite liqueur variation results from the refinement with high-quality St. Kilian single malt whisky. This delicious creation combines the creamy sweetness of a classic eggnog with the fascinating complexity of St. Kilian single malt whisky. The result is a sophisticated liqueur with a unique aroma and additional depth, which offers an incomparable taste experience for connoisseurs and lovers of high-quality spirits.

The full-bodied eggnog is made from exquisite ingredients and impresses with its outstanding quality, silky texture and irresistible taste. The addition of carefully selected St. Kilian single malt whisky gives the liqueur a multi-layered complexity. Seductive notes of the finest toffee and sweet vanilla give the eggnog additional elegance.

Whether enjoyed neat, served over ice cream or as a crowning refinement of desserts and cocktails, the new egg liqueur from St. Kilian Distillers promises a refined taste experience for discerning connoisseurs.

St. Kilian Premium Liqueurs In A New Look

The creamy Advocaat egg liqueur – made with single malt whisky is bottled for the first time in a new, matt black 500 ml pot still glass bottle. With the release of the eggnog, St. Kilian Distillers is also presenting the rest of its fruity, fresh and creamy liqueur collection in a new look. As with the St. Kilian single malt whiskies, the redesigned bottle is based on the iconic shape of their copper stills. The St. Kilian liqueurs in a modern look, but with the same delicious content, ensure stylish and, as usual, summery and light moments of pleasure.
