A shower of medals for St. Kilian Distillers at the World-Spirits Award 2024

Franconian distillery honoured as World-Class Distillery and Master-Class Distillery 2024

Rüdenau, March 2024

The German whisky distillery St. Kilian Distillers was honoured with the highly prestigious "World-Class Distillery" and "Master-Class Distillery" awards at this year's World-Spirits Award 2024 (WSA). Furthermore, the distillery's diverse product portfolio was awarded with 20 outstanding medals at the awards ceremony on 23 March in St. Pantaleon in Upper Austria. These included two double gold, 13 gold, four silver and one bronze medal.

Philipp Trützler, CEO of St. Kilian Distillers, is highly satisfied with this impressive success: "As one of the leading German producers of high-quality whiskies and liqueurs, we are very proud to have established ourselves internationally as a pioneer in the industry. Being recognised at the World-Spirits Award 2024 encourages us in our pursuit of the highest quality and gives us the motivation to continue developing outstanding products."

St. Kilian's Master Distiller and Master Blender, Mario Rudolf, who personally accepted the trophies together with Philipp Trützler, is also impressed by the value and transparency of the international competition: "From our point of view, the WSA is an absolutely fair and highly professional competition with results that are always transparent. We are all the more pleased that many of our products, which are permanently available in our range, were honoured in this major competition. My thanks go to the entire St. Kilian team, whose commitment and passion are the key to our success."

Compared to other international spirits competitions, the WSA occupies a special position, as it not only awards medals for products, but also classifies the corresponding distilleries. In the "Whisky Worldwide" category, St. Kilian Distillers was awarded the highest award "World-Class Distillery 2024" as well as the title "Master-Class Distillery 2024" in the category (Bitters & Liqueurs).

The St. Kilian range also beat off competition from a total of 300 different spirits submitted by 77 distilleries from 25 countries. The international jury of experts judged according to the WOB 100-point system specially developed for spirits by the organiser Wolfram Ortner. The St. Kilian team is delighted with the extremely positive rating from the renowned spirits experts, which recognises the outstanding craftsmanship of the Lower Franconian distillery and the first-class quality of St. Kilian whiskies and liqueurs.
