Blueberry Moonshine: Single malt whisky meets tangy blueberry flavour for the perfect summer drink

St. Kilian Distillers and O'Donnell Moonshine present an exclusive cooperation with an innovative spirit

Rüdenau/Berlin, July 2025

The German whisky distillery St. Kilian Distillers from Rüdenau and the Berlin cult brand O'Donnell Moonshine are jointly launching an extraordinary spirit on the market: 'O'Donnell Blueberry Moonshine – Made With St. Kilian Single Malt Whisky'. This collaborative product combines the artisanal precision and authentic character of a true single malt whisky with the vibrant freshness of blueberries – a seductively balanced flavour experience that evokes the spirit of summer.

What makes this spirit truly special is its alcohol base: pure, high-quality St. Kilian single malt whisky. It gives the Blueberry Moonshine a rich depth and a distinctive character – perfect for those seeking new flavour experiences and who appreciate quality with style.

The single malt whisky is double-distilled in traditional Scottish copper stills and matured in the finest bourbon casks, before being carefully refined with flavours of fine vanilla and tangy blueberries. The result is a fruity, smooth and summery light indulgence – an elegant twist on classic whisky craftsmanship that delights with stylish lightness.

This innovative release also symbolises the fusion of two worlds: urban coolness meets the German art of distilling – modern, premium and refreshingly different. A fruity, smooth composition that not only impresses with its quality, but also appeals to all those who value character and innovation. Ready to drink, ready to love

'O'Donnell Blueberry Moonshine – Made With St. Kilian Single Malt Whisky' can be enjoyed neat, on ice or in creative cocktails. Fresh, vibrant and urban crafted, this versatile spirit is the perfect match for BBQs, picnics or cosy evenings with friends.

A true spirit without compromise: The 'O'Donnell Blueberry Moonshine – Made With St. Kilian Single Malt Whisky' sets innovative standards in the German spirits landscape and invites you to explore new horizons of flavour.
